ETERNAL PUNISHMENT.

Views of the Religious Press on the Pending Question

Beecherism run mad—[United Presbyterian]

He may now be enrolled as a Universalist of the Restoration school—[Herald and Presbyterian (Presbyterian)]

Mr. Beecher does not assert his belief in Universalism, he even rejects it with abhorrence—[Christian Leader (Universalist)]

There is scarcely the shadow of a foundation for the criticisms jubilant or impecunatory, which it has received—[Standard of the Cross (Protestant Episcopal)]

There are cheering signs of the new age now dawning upon us, preparing the way for a more hopeful and rational faith—[The New Church Independent (Swedenborgian)]

Canon Farrar, Mr. Beecher and others impliedly or indirectly charge that such ideas of hell form a part of evangelical theology. Such caricatures of the faith of their brethren is indecent and outrageous—[The Interior (Presbyterian)]

The revised report in the Christian Union shows that he does not deny the doctrine of future retribution for those who reject Christ, but denounces the idea that those who never heard of Christ would suffer endless misery in consequence—[Lutheran Observer]

It is to be regretted that Mr. Beecher's views of future punishment are so loose and illogical—[Journal and Messenger (Baptist)]

But we really do not know why so much should be said about these late utterances of the Plymouth pulpit. The day has gone by when the opinions of Mr. Beecher have much weight with anybody outside of his own congregation—[Examiner and Chronicle (Baptist)]

But our Protestant friends are busily engaged just now in attempts to convince themselves that there is no hell—or, if there be, that it is an infinitely better place than heaven. The latter is the opinion of the most prominent preacher in the country—Mr. Beecher—[Catholic Review]

A reading of Mr. Beecher's sermon shows that it gives no aid or comfort whatever to Universalism. It is flatly and openly opposed to it. One or two secular papers wrested his words from their settings and tried to pervert his meaning—[Christian Intel ligencer (Reformed Dutch)]

It is one of the ablest discourses of the able Plymouth preacher, and, with the exception of an intensely nervous form of imprecation touching the destiny of the countless millions who have been swept unsaved into eternity, the sermon is in accord with evangelical teaching—[Methodist Recorder (Protestant Methodist)]

We do not like the implication of Mr. Beecher, that orthodox Christians now believe in the kind of God and the kind of hell which he and Mr. R. G. Ingersoll describe and denounce. The ill effect of such utterances is seen in the growing tendency to restiveness under any preaching of law and penalty—[The Advance (Congregationalist)]

We can not agree with Mr. Beecher in many of his modes of expression, but we are relieved to find that the dogmas which he repudiated with such vehemence if we rightly understand him, are not now, if they ever were, any part of our recognized or orthodox faith—[Christian Mirror (Congregationalist)]

In the war against sin he is not a cannon, but a load of hay. Rightly used, he would feed the artillery horses, and so help efficiently, but when he is pushed up to the front as the representative of orthodoxy he is put at a disadvantage, and may be made to subvert the enemy's cavalry as well as that of his friends—[New York Christian Advocate (Methodist)]

The doctrine of neuroscience is only an intermediate state, a half way house. Having broken loose from the old theory, these men have run into this convenient shelter—the only one they can see at present—but they will not stay there long. They can not find permanent rest there. They will go further in search of it—[Herald of Life (Second Advent)]

A CASE OF LEPROSY.—The meeting of the San Francisco Medical Society on Tuesday evening was characterized by an event of unusual importance—the inspection and discussion of a genuine case of leprosy. All doubts on the subject were set at rest not only by the appearance and testimony of the unfortunate Mongolian victim, but also by the corroborative statements of the Chinese physician treating the case. The startling opinion was expressed that leprosy might become epidemic in the low valleys of California. What measures are actually in force to prevent this terrible disorder from taking firm root in this State, never to be eradicated?—S. F. Post

BRIGHAM YOUNG'S twenty-five wild ows and forty-five children are dis satisfied with the distribution of the Prophet's property and threaten to bring a lawsuit that will throw the discussion of hell into the shade.

WONDERFUL SUCCESS

OF THE GREAT
LUNG AND THROAT REMEDY.

DR. EBEL'S

BALSAM AND COUGH MEDICINE

Declared to surpass everything hitherto introduced for the swift and speedy cure of all Lung and Throat complaints.

The sale of this famous remedy for the cure of all Colds or Coughs peculiar to this mountain climate has increased so marvellously since its recent introduction, that the proprietor fearlessly challenges comparison with any medicine of the kind in the world.

This wonderful remedy is especially adapted for all Lung and Throat Complaints peculiar to miners, or any persons liable to exposure from cold drafts in tunnels working in bad air underground, or the absorption of powder smoke into the lungs. Three doses a day will keep the lungs clear, and enable the miner to work in the midst of powder smoke without coughing.

It is not claimed for this Balsam like most patent medicines, that it will cure all diseases, but it is guaranteed to cure all diseases of the lungs. One bottle of the Balsam will, in nearly all cases, cure a bad cold or cough of from one to two months duration, two bottles, a cold or cough of from two to four months standing, and three bottles any similar affection that has been in existence for several years.

Notice! The public is called upon to agree that Dr. Ebel will in all cases refund the money to purchasers of the Balsam on the returning the bottles to him, if not cured within a reasonable length of time.

To be had of all Drug Stores and all Merchants stores in mining camps.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The English fleet entered the Bosphorus yesterday; the Sultan will remain in Constantinople in any event; Russia says she will occupy Constantinople for the same reason England sent her fleet there; there is great activity in the English navy yards.

Mrs. Ben. Pittman was cremated in Pennsylvania yesterday.

The Attorney General says he will not answer the President's letter on the Louisiana matter.

The Labor party were defeated in the San Louis Obispo election yesterday.

John Mackay has bought Albert Grant's home in Kensington, London, and will move his family there.

Don Augustin Edwards, a Chile millionaire, worth $25,000,000, is dead.

The bark Otto George was burned at sea on the 7th. The sea was too heavy to rescue the crew though the Chilean lost a life boat in the attempt.

Doorkeeper Polk is to be removed. Developments make it certain.

Russia's national feeling is getting greatly aroused.

Beavers, who murdered Sowell, at New Liberty, Indiana, was hanged yesterday.

The Senate Committee on Territories report favorably on the bill forming Lincoln Territory—to be formed from Dakota and Wyoming. The Black Hills will be in the new Territory.

A resolution asking the President to invite an international monetary commission to consider and recommend uniform rates or relative values for the coinage and legal tender of gold and silver, was presented in the House yesterday.

HENRY W. LARKIN, formerly proprietor of the Sacramento Union, has brought suit in the Third District Court, San Francisco, against Andrew J. Marsh, the short-hand reporter, and his wife, Adeline D. Marsh, to recover $60,000 damages. The complaint alleges that between January 1 and June 1, 1876, Mrs. Marsh systematically poisoned the plaintiff by administering arsenic to him with the intention of breaking him down mentally and physically to enable Mrs. Marsh to possess herself of his property by undue influence. Parties familiar with the facts in the case state that during the time mentioned in the complaint Marsh's family occupied a house owned by Larkin, the latter boarding with the family, thus affording an opportunity for the perpetration of the alleged crime. They also state that Mrs. Marsh was successful to a great extent in her designs; that Larkin was induced to part with much property, real and personal, without any valuable consideration, and that from comparative wealth he has been reduced to indigence. It is not alleged that Mr. Marsh was connected with his wife in the affair, he being included in the complaint simply to cover a legal technicality.

Among the delinquent tax-lists that come to us from the various interior counties of California, we do not find any that has a livelier look than the one published in the San Diego Union of the 11th instant. The four sides of the paper are full, besides part of an extra sheet. One of the delinquents appears as the owner of 93,000 acres. A large proportion of the property on which taxes have not been paid consists of town lots, many of which are assessed at prices varying from $1 to $10, the amount of tax and costs being less than $1. Speculators in tax-titles can evidently find a chance there to harvest a good lot of Sheriff's deeds.

AN iron mountain, rivaling in size the famous Iron Mountain of Missouri, is reported to have been discovered in Colfax county, New Mexico. The reputed purity of the ore, in connection with the large quantity of coal abounding in Colfax county, make the prospects of future industries in that locality very encouraging.

Gov. INWIN has revoked his proclamation calling for an election of a Senator in Santa Clara county to have been held on the 13th, and has issued another calling for the election of an Assemblyman and a Senator on the 19th, in that county.

Nor one (1) lawyer in the New Hampshire Senate.

The Workingmen confidently predict the election of their ticket by a large majority in Santa Clara county, California. Republican and Democratic politicians fear such a result. A State Senator and Assemblyman are to be elected to fill vacancies caused by death. The Democrats and Republicans of Santa Clara have selected S. W. Boring and W. M. Williamson as their candidates respectively for Senator and Assemblyman, as the election is to be held next Tuesday. Boring is a Democrat and Williamson a Republican; thus both the old parties have united to beat the new or Workingmen's party, the creation of which has destroyed Democratic supremacy, for these workers were mainly Democrats. The workers met in Convention Friday night to nominate their candidates.

The House of Representatives on the 17th of January passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Treasury to "pay to the officers and soldiers engaged in the military service of the United States in the war with Mexico; and who served out the time of their engagement or were honorably discharged" the three months pay provided for by the act of July 19, 1848, and the limitations contained in said act, in all cases, upon the presentation of satisfactory evidence that said extra compensation has not been previously received." The bill has not yet been passed by the Senate. It is designed to enable the men—about 150 in all—who never called for the extra pay granted by the act of 1848 until the appropriation lapsed into the Treasury. If the bill passes it is estimated that about $40,000 will be raised.

One of the new financial fancies of Paris is a company for "Insurance Against Female Celibacy." Holders of policies begin to derive benefit from the insurance in the shape of annuity if they remain unmarried after the age of thirty. In other words, on the receipt of an annual premium the company guarantees to insure ladies against celibacy, by placing them in communication with eligible parties, and, if they do not succeed in securing a husband before the age of thirty, undertakes to pay them an annuity or a lump sum down. Widows are excluded from insurance.

The twenty-second consecutive monthly dividend of the California Mining Company was paid yesterday. This makes $21,760,000 disbursed to stockholders in twenty-two months. The present market value of the mine is $15,120,000. At the time the first dividend was paid, it was $43,200,000. Taking out the dividends paid, it ought to be worth about $20,000,000—that is, assuming it was not overvalued in May, 1876. The present value is just the price of fourteen more $2 dividends.

UNDER WATER.—The Colusa Sun says the town of Knight's Landing has been under water for the past week. The water in the tule became higher than the water in the river on account of the levee joining the high land there, and it went over the town from the back. They were prepared to leave the river out, but could not fight it all around. It was once two feet deep all over town, but they cut the railroad embankment below town and let a good deal of the water out, but there was, Thursday morning, a considerable part of the town under water.

IN the investigation of the wreck of the Metropolis, held in Philadelphia on the 13th, several witnesses testified to having heard the Captain say after the wreck that he had been told by Lant, one of the owners, that if he had any accident not to make any half business of it; if he made a wreck of the ship that he should make it a good one. This testimony was corroborative of that heretofore given by Paul J. White, the engineer, and A. M. Newman.

A CHINESE in high life took place this week at Washington, and the names were sent sky high. The two satellites of Mars received their names. The discoverer, Prof. Hall, of the Naval Observatory, has selected for the names Deunus and Shobus—Deunus for the outer one and Shobus for the inner. The names are mentioned by Homer in the fifteenth book of the Iliad, where Mars is preparing to descend to the earth.

The Conclave of Cardinals for the election of a successor to Pope Pius IX, will meet in Rome on the 17th instant.

Snow lies six inches deep at Palisade.

Senator Jones calls his constituents "My people in Nevada."

Tramps and vagrants are becoming numerous upon the Comstock.

Diphtheria and sore throat are prevalent in Eureka at the present time.

The new three compartment shaft of the Grand Prize is down and timbered 125 feet.

The streets of Carson are like the road to wealth and fame—rugged and difficult to travel.

The bullion tax in Eureka county for the last quarter reaches the handsome sum of $23,000.

Chinamen, negroes and Caucasians can be seen all mixed in together at Carson's public schools.

Mining men say that the Sntro tunnel could reach the Savage in fifteen days if so desired.

The 1700-foot level of the Ophir has cooled sufficiently to allow working, which will be resumed immediately.

The Exchequer assessment will be delinquent on the Board on the 17th, and the Ophir assessment on the 19th.

The Defrees Mining and Mill Company have levied an assessment of 25c per share, delinquent March 25th.

The recent assessment on the Overman was the fortieth, aggregating $3,053,889, levied since the company was incorporated.

The January bullion product of the Northern Belle was $35,891, and of the Standard mine, $62,172. There is only one mill running at either mine at present.

Wm. Longley, generally known as Wm. Cook, was killed by Young Mason last Saturday evening at Hawk Mason's ranch, on Walker river, in Esmeralda county.

Bolleville Times: The County Commissioners have offered a reward of $500 for the murderer of Joseph Parmental. The Governor will probably increase it to $1,000.

The Richmond Consolidated mine produced 5,200 tons of pig lead in 1877. Of this, 200 tons were sold in San Francisco, about the same quantity shipped to China, and the balance marketed in New York City.

And now Lucky Baldwin, after getting out of one trouble and getting Lennie in, finds himself in again. Edward M. Foster has brought suit for $25,000 against him for services rendered in the Lennie McCormick seduction case.

A meeting of Scotchmen was held in Ward on Saturday last for the purpose of organizing a Caledonian Club. James L. Innes, Wm. Bothwick and Wm. Pryde were appointed a committee to draft constitution and by-laws.

Wm. Pearson of Ormsby county has quit-claimed to the North Ophir Mining Company all his right, title and interest in the mining claim of said company, which adjoins the Union Consolidated ground on the North and East, and which was located September 13, 1873. The consideration named is $2.

THE Mexican War Pensions bill proposes to pension every soldier who served sixty days in the Mexican or Black Hawk wars, without regard to their condition. The list will include Jefferson Davis and many Confederates, besides General's Grant and Sherman, and will take $150,000,000 out of the treasury. Yet the Democrats are for retrenchment. All these soldiers have been rewarded with bounty lands, and the proposed measure is entirely unprecedented.

FOUR men of national reputation died on the 11th instant—Gideon Wells, Secretary of the Navy under Lincoln; Charles M. Conrad, Secretary of War under Fillmore; William Welsh, President of Girard College, Philadelphia, and brother of the United States Minister to England; and Theodore Roosevelt, recently nominated by the President for Collector of the Port of New York.

PLANTERS in the State of Georgia are trying the experiment of cultivating the tea plant in that State and the article produced seems to give fully as good satisfaction as the imported tea.

THE President will not suspend General Anderson as Collector of New Orleans on account of his conviction by the State Court, regarding his case as one of political persecution.

A Washington dispatch of the 14th thus speaks of the speech delivered by Senator Jones on the Silver bill. It will well repay reading:

The overshadowing feature of interest in today's Congressional proceedings was the long-expected and brilliantly-effective speech of Jones, which commanded unwearied attention throughout the two hours occupied in its delivery, and procured for him at its close a spontaneous ovation, such as has not for many years been witnessed in the Senate. His recognized leadership of the movement for remonetization of silver, and the universally acknowledged fact that his previous speeches, and the report written by him as Chairman of the Silver Commission, have supplied, practically, all the arguments used in building up the present strength of the movement throughout the country, had aroused great expectations as to his forthcoming effort of today; but it was generally supposed he would not be able to present anything new on the subject, and that his speech would consist mainly of a recapitulation of his former argument. It was, however, both striking and fresh. The first part was devoted almost entirely to establishing by an astonishing number of proofs and illustrations the proposition that silver has not depreciated in comparison with any other commodity than gold, but on the contrary that its purchasing power is to-day greater than it was when demonetized. On this he built up an extremely forcible argument that equity would not be violated by the payment of the Government bonds in silver, and that the national honor is not involved and cannot be impaired by making the old silver dollar full legal tender for public as well as private debts. After fortifying these positions with many other tersely-stated arguments he proceeded to refute criticisms made against himself and the people of Nevada to the effect that they were actuated in their advocacy of silver remonetization by sordid motives of self-interest, and warning up to his subject, he spoke from this point onward with an earnest intensity and power which still more firmly riveted the attention of every person in the crowded chamber. He declared that he had no investment in productive silver mines, and his investments in non-productive silver mines are less extensive than in mines which produce gold exclusively. He advocated the remonetization of silver, because both justice and expediency demanded it, and because even if it does not restore the full measure of prosperity it will check the rapidly-spreading bankruptcy and poverty which threatens to overwhelm the country. Furthermore, he inquired with keen sarcasm whether the metropolitan press had ever demanded that Senators and members interested in national banks, in any of the thousand industries affected by tariff legislation, should refrain from voting in regard to them. "If such a rule were insisted upon," said he, "might it not leave one or both branches of Congress without a quorum? Might not a strict enforcement of such a rule render necessary the creation of an idle and privileged class to legislate for this country?" He then pronounced a high eulogium on the people of Nevada, gave a picturesque description of their toil, enterprise and hardships in wrenching silver from its embraces of adamant by exhausting labor, and eloquently claimed they have rights to protection as sacred as those of the national creditor. In his peroration he created a sensation by boldly attacking in detail and in the aggregate several of the New York City newspapers for their course in denouncing the vast majority of Congress as dishonest repudiators. This he maintained was in effect a shameful and pernicious assault upon the national honor; but he warned its makers that the people, by peaceful methods, would nevertheless in this capital demonstrate through constitutional means their imperial will. Immediately upon the termination of this speech there was a burst of enthusiastic and long-continued applause from Senators on both sides of the chamber, as well as from the galleries, and more than half the members of the Senate left their seats and crowded around Senator Jones to congratulate him, the first being Senator Blaine, who sat directly in front of him. So great was the confusion caused by these congratulations that despite the efforts of the presiding officer and numerous calls to order it was nearly ten minutes before order was sufficiently restored to allow the business of the Senate to proceed. Official reporters and other old habits of the Senate say the scene has never been paralleled within their recollection. Conkling and several other pronounced opponents of silver remonetization characterized Jones' effort as a "great speech," and Stanley Matthews, reflecting the general opinion of the sympathizers with its argument, remarked, with a beaming countenance: "He has not only made a great speech but has worked a miracle, for he has said something both good and new on the silver question."

THE Governor of California has signed the bill providing that where a man and woman have been living together they may be married without a license by any clergyman.

THE San Francisco Benevolent Society have furnished 6,007 meals to hungry individuals, between the dates of January 30th and February 12th.

A TELEGRAM from Washington says: "The Union Pacific Company paid out $100,000 for legal services last year," and adds: "It is believed this money was used to help along the Republican cause here last Winter, and it is probable a committee of the House will be ordered to investigate the matter."

MOVED! MOVED! MOVED!—The City Drug Store will now be found at Osburn & Shoemaker's old stand on Commercial Row, where we will be pleased to see all our old patrons and as many new ones as have any use for anything in our line. New drugs, and sold at bed rock prices.

MATHESON & McRAE. N. B.—Prescriptions carefully compounded day or night by a graduate of Pharmacy. You that are afflicted give us a call.

REMOVAL NOTICE.—Osburn and Shoemaker, Druggists, inform their old patrons and the community generally, that they will on the 1st day of February, move into the building occupied by J. N. Jaquish, one door west of their present stand. *

OSBURN & SHOEMAKER, wholesale and retail druggists, Commercial Row, Reno, (removed to one door west of their old stand) now offer everything in their line at the lowest possible rates—including paints, oils, varnishes and glassware, patent medicines, fancy and toilet articles, bird cages, lamps and lamp fixtures. *

CHEAP HAY.—Parties desiring to purchase good hay will find it to their advantage to call upon Jno. Larcombe, corner of Second and Sierra streets, who has on hand a large quantity of the best timothy and alfalfa hay, which he will sell in quantities to suit, cheap for cash. *

MISCELLANEOUS,
CATARRH
NEVER-FAILING RELIEF AFFORDED BY
SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.
IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. Whether of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the Radical Cure gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal Affections, that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists, and patients is unanimous on this point, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position this remedy has attained, and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.
From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R. I.
MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S. I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to prescribe with any article. I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its efficacy. I am, therefore, hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial. I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc., THEO. P. BOGERT.
Bristol, R. I., July 23, 1877.

A Just Tribute.

Reno has a wood-chopper without a sign of a leg, and he makes more money than the printer.—E. E.

If nine-tenths of the people of this State were as much crippled as Nels Light they would be inmates of the Poor Houses. Not so with Nels. Though he has lost both feet by having them frozen, and now hobbles around on his knees, he is ambitious to take care of himself and cuts wood almost as handily as his more properly footed brothers. People seeing his desire to support himself, lent him a helping hand, and to-day, instead of asking to be a subject of charity Nels can show a fatter purse than many of us. "God helps those who help themselves."

Not Arrived Yet.

James Harrington, the Storey county man, who has been granted a change of venue to this county, on a charge of murdering James A. Sullivan, has not yet arrived here—the Gold Hill News to the contrary. The delay is caused by the officials duplicating the papers in the case, all of which were stolen from the Storey County Clerk's office. He will be here in a day or two. Our officers will not allow him to escape, if vigilance will prevent it.

HOOLE & Co. have dissolved partnership, Mr. Palmer retiring from the firm. S. F. Hoole will pay and receive all bills of the late firm. Official notice is given of the fact in our advertising columns.

Local Squibs.

Water will be abundant next Summer.

Three cars of anti-Chinese advocates yesterday.

Travel is light between the Comstock and San Francisco.

Blessed is the man that sprinkles ashes on the sidewalk.

The Good Templars meet to-night in their hall over the Congregational Church.

It was not particularly lively yesterday, nor were items exceedingly plentiful.

There are seven criminals in the county jail—all for minor offenses, save Rover and Luffain.

That pool of water at the corner of Commercial Row and Virginia street is not the town reservoir.

A few valentines still wend their way through the Postoffice to the joy or anguish of the receivers.

Thursday was the anniversary of the Depot Hotel fire, in which Mrs. Johnson was burned to death.

Rover was very quiet yesterday. In fact does not rant at all since his knowledge of the certainty of death.

The river has not raised much. The snow has not melted off on the hills. When it begins to, put your houses on stilts.

A few fishermen dangled minnows in the river yesterday, but the trout did not do a great amount of nibbling. Rather too early yet.

About 1,500 pounds of Pyramid trout were received in Virginia City Wednesday. They sell for from 20 to 30 cents per pound.

The eclipse of the moon which is to take place at 5 o'clock to-morrow morning will keep a great many curious people up all night.

A valentine addressed to "The Chief Editor of the Gazette office," arrived from San Francisco yesterday. Who acknowledged its ownership.

The Truckee Republican says snow is ten feet deep at the Summit, and three feet deep at Truckee. We can't have any here to stay any length of time.

A San Francisco paper says that the bonanza firm is negotiating, and with every prospect of success, for the purchase of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad, the Lake Tahoe narrow gauge, and all wood and timber owned by Yerington, Bliss & Co.

While the weather here was fretful and changeable last Wednesday and Thursday it acted differently with others. At Truckee, in the twenty-four hours ending Thursday morning at 6 o'clock, 12 inches of snow fell; at the Summit, 22 inches; Cisco, 12 inches; Emigrant Gap, 10 inches; Blue Canyon, 12 inches; Alta, 8 inches. At Gold Run it rained for 12 hours.

Theater Last Evening.

Smith's Academy of Music was crowded last night to see "Kenilworth," and the Adah Richmond Operetta Bouffe troupe. It is seldom that we have seen such a fine audience. The performance was excellent in every respect, each one had their part to perfection, and the audience was quick to notice and applaud the local hits and good puns. The singing was a feature of the evening. Miss Adah Richmond is as pretty as a picture; also Miss Alice Dashwood; Miss Cora Verne as the Duke of Sussex was first rate. Mr. Fiske as Varney and Mr. Bruno as Wayland Smith were both capital. In fact the performance gave the utmost satisfaction. This afternoon will be a matinee, and admission 50 cents to all parts of the house. This evening Chow Chow will be given. Reserved seats only one dollar.

Information Wanted.

James A. Stidger, of North San Juan, Nevada county, California, desires to obtain some information as to the whereabouts of one William Thompson, who was a soldier in the First Regiment of the Nevada State Volunteers, Company B, Captain George A. Thurston. There is due him a certain sum of money from the United States. He was, about ten years ago, a resident of San Juan, when he left and went to Reno.

The Libel Suit.

The libel suit of Thompson vs. Powning, for alleged defamation of character, was on trial in the District Court yesterday. A jury was found and C. S. Varian made a brief address, after which the Court adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

THIRTEEN blooded horses en route from Kentucky to California, belonging to L. B. Dubois, stopped off here yesterday to rest.

Assignee.

In the matter of the appointment of an Assignee for the estate of H. Ward, bankrupt, no action has as yet been taken. There was a meeting of the creditors in Register Strother's office on Thursday; some wanted O. W. Jones and others asked J. N. Jaquish, but there being some informality in the proof the Register postponed the selection of an Assignee until next Monday.

Rover's Relations.

"X" asks us if Rover has a family. Inquiry made results in our learning that he did have a wife, but she got a divorce from him, because of brutality. She is now a resident of Merced county, Cal., we believe. Rumor says she rejoices at his approaching fate—thinking it but justice. His scaffold is now being erected.

RESERVED SEATS for the matinee this afternoon and for the entertainment to-night can be had at the Postoffice to-day without extra charge. Go early and secure a good seat.

L. & E. Wertheimer, Agents, San Francisco

HOOLE & Co.'s Hair Tonic will prevent your hair from falling out, cleanse the scalp of dandruff, and renew its growth. It is a splendid hair dressing. Try it.

Hoole & Co.'s Mystic Balm will prevent or cure chapped hands or face—render them soft as velvet and white as snow. Warranted to cure or money returned.

Hoole & Co.'s Moth and Freckle Eradicator will beautify the complexion, remove freckles and moth spots—is a harmless and splendid compound for the toilet.

Prescriptions accurately compounded by a scientific Pharmacist—a graduate of twenty years practice—at the lowest rates.

HOOLE & Co.'s PHARMACY,
Commercial Row.
